Whiting. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Anson McCook Beard, Mrs. Phillips B. Thompson, Mrs. R. Burnham Moffet, Mrs. Stuyvesant Pierpont, Mrs. Charles M. Connelley, Mrs. Arnold Wood, Mrs. Frederick P. Delaford, Mrs. Shepherd K. DeForest, Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson and Mrs. Howard C. Brokaw.

Tickets for the bridge tournament have been placed at $5 each and for the dansant at $1, so there will be a choice of entertainment. Tickets may be obtained of Mrs. Patterson at her home, 32 West Fifty-second street.

Among the dances for charity this week will be the one in the ballroom at Sherry's on Tuesday night under the auspices of the New York Guild of St. Timothy's Alumnae, for the benefit of the Children's Club of St. Ambrose Mission, at 236 East Eleventh street. This settlement is situated in the heart of the Italian colony and those who are interested in the dance have named it a "Festa-Nella-Poco-Italia."

A contest in modern dances for prizes will be held in which all guests will be allowed to take part. There will be no entrance fees charged, but applications to participate should be sent to Miss Hilah French, who has charge of the sale of tickets, at 43 West Fifty-first street. The dance contest will begin at 10:30 P. M., and throughout the evening there will also be general dancing.

Several dinners will be given in advance of the dance. Mrs. Arthur O. Choate, who is among the members of the guild, will give a dinner at Sherry's, and Mrs. Stephen C. Clark will give one at her home, 10 East Seventieth street. Some of the other members of the guild are: Misses Rudolph H. Kissel, William Fellows Morgan, Jr., Edwin Parsons, C. Women prominent in society are taking active part in the arrangements for the dance to be given in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on the night of December 2 at 11 o'clock of the Downtown Day Nursery. Mrs. Ernest Iselin, Mrs. Oliver G. Jennings, Mrs. Goodhue Livingston and Mrs. G. Louis Boissevain are among those who are aiding Mrs. William B. Bristow, the president of the nursery, and as a large number of tickets have already been sold the success of the ball seems well assured.

Others who are interested in the ball are Mrs. Paulding Fosdick, Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Miss Iselin, Mrs. George B. Post, Jr., Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mrs. J. Frederic Kernochan, Mrs. Walter B. James and Mrs. James Speyer. Several dinners will be given before the ball by the patronesses and members of the ball committee. Tickets are $5 each and may be had from Mrs. William B. Bristow, at 149 West Fifty-seventh street or at the Ritz-Carlton.

A soiree dansante will be held in the ballroom of the Plaza on the night of December 4 for the benefit of the East Side House Settlement. A large number of this season's debutantes and young men of society will attend, for many young people are taking an active interest in the charity. Conrad's orchestra will play for dancing and the floor committee will be composed of Howard A. Plummer, Frederick C. Inman, Harvey Ladew, E. Hubert Litchfield, Alfred Ely, Jr., Courtland W. Handy, Gardner W. Millett, Farrar Bateson, Shesbure Prescott and others.

Tickets at $5 and boxes at $50 may be obtained from Mrs. Donald G. Goddard at 54 East Seventy-ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wallace Kearney have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Cynthia Kearney, and Walter S. Vele of this city. Miss Kearney is the owner of several thoroughbred horses which she has exhibited at horse shows at Tuxedo and Plainfield, N. J. Mr. Vele, a cousin of William Ziegler, son of the late William Ziegler, was graduated from the University of Virginia last year. No date has been set for the wedding.

One of the most interesting charity dances of this month will be the Russian costume ball in aid of the Lenox Hill Settlement on the night of December 15, the eve of the Czar of Russia's birthday. It will be a sort of a Russian carnival in celebration of the occasion, and there will be many novel attractions for the amusement of the guests.

Mrs. R. W. Hawksworth and Charles K. Slayter are arranging a cabaret that will include special features appropriate to the occasion, chief of which will be several Russian dances. Most of the guests will appear in Russian costume and there will be dinners given in advance of the ball by some of the patronesses. Mrs. Charles H. Alexander, Mrs. W. Earl Dodge and Mrs. George Clark are among those who will entertain guests at dinner. Mrs. George Draper of 162 East Sixtythird street is receiving applications for tickets at $5 each and boxes at $50. The patronesses include Mrs. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, Mrs. Theodore Douglas Robinson, Mrs. Robert L. Gerry, Mrs. Sumner Gerard, Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Robert L. Gerry and Mrs. Robert Brewster.

An interesting engagement recently announced was that of Miss Ursula Wolcott Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, to Edmund S. Twining, Jr., of this city. Miss Brown, who was introduced to society two years ago, is prominent in society here and in the summer colony at Southampton, L. I., where Mr. Twining also passes the season at the villa of his parents. Miss Brown figured prominently in several of the entertainments given for charity last winter by young people of society. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their daughter are at 54 East Fifty-second street for the winter.

Mr. Twining is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Twining of 54 East Fifty-second street. He was graduated from Harvard last June.

No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Among the engagements recently made known was that of Miss Marjorie Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Browning, and George S. Dickinson, son of Mrs. George E. Dickinson of Irvington, N. Y.

Miss Browning is a sister of Miss Adelaide Browning, who was recently married to Stuart Green of this city at St. Barnabas's Church in Irvington, N. Y., at which wedding she was one of the bridesmaids. Mr. Dickinson was among the ushers. Their engagement was announced at a dinner given for the bride following the reception at Grace-mere, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Browning in Irvington.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Anna Graham Brainard, daughter of John Brainard of this city, and Frank Folson Phillips, Jr., of Boston and Cambridge, Mass. No date has been set for the wedding.
